Did you know?

Since 1971 we've set some standards in these parts and we'd like to share some facts with you while you dine with us...

About our staff - Our staff, our most valuable asset, has the longest average tenure of any restaurant group in N.H.! We're proud of this. They're the best there is.

Our white chocolate has been a C-Man trademark since 1971, well before it was a trendy thing to do.

Last fall, the Common Man family was proud to have owner Alex Ray inducted into the New Hampshire Business Review's Business Excellence Hall of Fame and pleased to be awarded the Restaurant Neighbor Award from the National Restaurant Association. Earlier in the year, the Common Man family proudly received Business NH Magazine's "Tourism/Hospitality Business of the Decade" award and was selected by readers of Hippo Press to receive eleven "Best of Hippo Press" awards and readers of New Hampshire Magazine for four "Best of New Hampshire 2010" awards. Owner Alex Ray received the Cornerstone Humanitarian Award from the National Restaurant Association in 2009 and The Common Man was also named "Best Company to Work For" in the food service industry by The Griffin Report of Food Marketing in 2008. For the past several years, The Common Man has been named as one of the Top 100 private companies in New Hampshire by Business NH Magazine.

Visit the Common Man Company Store. We're just across the street from the Common Man Ashland. We stock your favorite Common Man goodies: dips, cheeses, bread, wines, Bloody Mary mix, clothing, mugs and more. Check out our famous Common Man-made fudge and our 20-foot-long penny candy counter. We custom make gift baskets for all occasions!

Open - We are open year-round serving dinner in Ashland, Lincoln, Windham, Concord, Merrimack, Claremont and Portsmouth. We are open for lunch in Ashland, Merrimack and Concord daily and serve lunch seasonally in Lincoln. We offer Sunday Brunch at our Concord and Windham locations. Common Man Claremont and Portsmouth serve dinner all day on Sunday and feature brunch specials. You can also enjoy Sunday Brunch at Lakehouse on Lake Winnepesaukee in Meredith.

Fine Print... (things we gotta tell ya!)

- Closed - We are closed on Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.
